Thankfulness Beyond Words

Monday, January 15, 2007

Thank you to all who prayed for me during my recent hospitalization and health crisis. I can assure you that God blessed your prayers, along with your many, many gestures of encouragement. I will be in a period of recovery for some time. The Lord taught me so much during the crisis — and He is teaching me much during days of forced rest and recovery. I will be writing about these things in days to come.

For now, please know of my sincere and enduring thankfulness for your prayer and concern. God was so kind and gracious to see me through this crisis — and to give me such friends along the way.

Faithfully,

Albert Mohler
