Resolutions.

To the Shiawassee Baptist Association:—

Your Committee on Resolutions would report the following:

Whereas The Saloon is the great enemy of the Home, the Church and State. Spreading its baneful influence in every direction. Therefore be it.

I. Resolved, that we appreciate every effort being put forth for its overthrow, especially commending the splendid work of the Anti-Saloon League, in this State.

II. Resolved, that since the Missionary Spirit is the life of the Church and hope of the kingdom, we express our appreciation of the excellent work being done by all our Boards and exert ourselves to increase their efficiency.

III. Resolved, that we in recognition of the great value of all our Missionary Journals and the ever increasing worth of The Christian Herald, shall endeavor to place them in every Baptist home in our Association.

IV. Resolved, That Since the Young People are the hope of the Church we impress upon our program committee the need of larger space in the Sessions for B. Y. P. U. and Junior work.

V. Resolved, That we deplore the lack of space on the statistical table of the Church letter for proper report of B. Y. P. U., Bible School, Junior union, and Farther Light Contributions; and further we implore for such a table as shall encourage all our workers.

VI. Resolved that we recommend to the Program Committee that a place be given at each associational gathering for a special Evangelistic Sermon.

VII. Resolved That we show by rising vote our hearty appreciation of the generous hospitality of the good people of Bath who have so kindly ministered to our comfort in this Associational gathering.

Respectfully Submitted,

Digest of Letters,

ANTRIM—No letter.

BATH—We extend a hearty welcome to the Association. Believe it will tend to strengthen us. Pastor Allenbaugh left us the first of March. Prayer and Covenant meetings, Sunday School and young People's meetings have all been kept up with good interest. Finances are in good condition.

BENGAL-REILEY—Bro. Northrup is our pastor; we are moving steadily on doing the work of the kingdom.

BYRON—But little change in our membership; pastor Stone has left us and pastor Goodrich has taken his place among us. Have reasons for encouragement. Congregations have more than doubled during the past year. An increase of interest among our young people; as a church are working and praying for a greater work of grace; wish to secure the services of an evangelist this fall.

CHESANING—Pastor Howland closed his labors with us the last of November. Bro. Colvin began his work here December first; have been improving our church property, pastor has prepared a large bulletin board with hour of services and placed it in front of Church. Have erased names of some of our members. Sustain a mission thirteen miles from town, pastor goes there once in two weeks; are praying for a revival.

CORUNNA—The past year has been one of many changes. have changed pastors. Rev. Leslie Bower came to us in September. Congregations are good and Sunday School attendance increasing, have lost four valuable members by removal; finances in good condition.

DEWITT—At our annual meeting in January had a nice gathering, a good program, and dinner was served. Sunday morning services well attended; three new members have been baptized. Mission meetings and church socials well attended, and have met all apportionments so far.

DURAND—We are encouraged; have redecorated interior of Church; engaged in union meetings last winter. Rev. A. B. Strickland assisting part of the time. Several have been added to the church; pastor has rendered faithful service. Mission Circle and Farther Lights have increased in interest and enthusiasm. Ladies Aid Society our main financial support; Sunday School well sustained.

LAINSBURG—The past year one of trial: Pastor Bell closed his pastorate last September; have had but nine Lord's day services since; our main financial supporters have moved away; have kept up our Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Church beneficence has been neglected; church out of debt; have called Rev. Thos. Howland to our pastorate but find it necessary to unite with Bath church in supporting him.

LANSING—The work of the Church has been abundantly blessed during the last year; our pastor attended the "World's Baptist Congress," held in London, England, last July; this was very helpful to him and we have been greatly benefited by the many excellent discourses he has delivered since that time. Our contributions to missions have been large. A five year plan of reducing our entire indebtedness has been adopted. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Olds gave us a beautiful pipe organ; the young people are especially active in the Sunday evening service. The Bible School is well attended; our assistant pastor Rev. F. L. Curry is meeting with marked success at Mission; 500 are now enrolled in our Home Department. We greatly miss Deacon J. E. St. John, whom the Lord has taken to Himself.

MAPLE RIVER—Rev. M. A. Thomas of Durand has been preaching for us since last September; special meetings were held last fall, several gave good evidence of a change of heart. Three have united with the Church by baptism; Last February Deacon Calvin Flint passed to his heavenly reward; we greatly miss him and his rich Christian experience.

OKEMOS—Our Sunday School and Ladies' Aid Society are being maintained, The church and other kindred organizations are in a dormant state.

OVID—Pastor Phelps closed his labors with us July 30, and Pastor Brown took up his work with us October 1; a quarterly business meeting has been taken up; the church is now arranged in ten divisions with a Superintendent for each; the Sunday School is active and progressive under the efficient labors of F. M. Lamb. Mrs. Brown has taken up our Home Department work; our B. Y. P. U. meetings are held Tuesday evenings with good attendance and interest. Our Ladies' Aid, Mission Circle, and Farther Lights are all doing good work.

Owosso—But few changes this year; The Ladies' Aid is a most important factor. Our pastor is a power for good among us.

PERRY—The year has been one of unusual activity with us; there has been a marked advance along some lines; have rebuilt our house of worship at a cost of nearly $2000.00. Our B. Y. P. U. pledged $450.00 towards this. There has been a good interest in the church all the year, and some have been baptised. Pastor Cooper has organized a Men's Club which has exercised a very helpful influence in the community.

SHEPARDSVILLE—Brother Northrup preaches for us once in two weeks on Sunday afternoons; Evangelist Strickland is assisting our pastor in special meetings with us. We have no Sunday School, but have the Home Department Quarterlies.

ST JOHNS—God has been with us; Bro. Strickland has assisted our pastor in a series of meetings; some turned to the Lord. Our church is in a thriving condition; our beloved pastor is untiring in his efforts to build up the church.

VERNON—Rev. J. P. Baker settled with us September 1; held union meetings with the M. E. Church last winter; were greatly helped. Expect to observe the ordinance of baptism soon. The Ladies' Aid, Women's Mission Circle, the Sunday School and the B. Y. P. U. are all doing efficient work.

WEBBERVILLE—We were without a pastor last winter but sustained our prayer meetings and Sunday School. Rev. Wm. Allenbaugh began his labors with us as pastor March 1; expects to take out station work soon. Have several candidates awaiting baptism. The Ladies' Aid Society is a great help to us.

WILLIAMSTON—The Lord's blessing has accompanied well directed effort during the past year. We have remodeled and refurnished our house of worship at an expense of $2800.00, all of which is provided for. Pastor Thrasher was assisted in a four weeks' meeting last winter by Rev. Roberts, of Howell, and Rev. C. VanDorn of Fenton, twenty converts were baptized and others are awaiting the ordinance.
