THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
1015 Lexington Road • Louisville, Kentucky 40203
Founded in 1859 • Rev. L. Howard, President

The Academic Colors

The academic colors of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary are scarlet and gold. Scarlet represents divinity and reflects Christ's crucifixion. Gold is a royal color and signifies the sovereignty of God. The seminary banner has three reversed gold chevrons against a scarlet background representing the trinity. Based upon this symbol is the seminary seal with the dove, the Holy Spirit, above an open Bible.

The satin lining of the academic hood repeats the three reversed gold chevrons upon a scarlet background. The size and shape of the academic hood emphasizes the degree level — the Doctor being the larger and the Master being the smaller. The velvet border of the hood is emblematic of the degree earned — dark blue for Philosophy, scarlet for Theology, light pink for Music, light blue for Education, and citron for Social Work.

The academic cap may be either the traditional black mortarboard or represent by shape or color the highest degree of the wearer or the institution granting the degree. The tassel color is also indicative of the degree field. The gold tassel is reserved for the doctorate.

The academic gown by its design may indicate the level of the degree. The use of color in the chevrons on the sleeve may indicate the field of the doctorate or the color of the gown may indicate the institution granting the degree. Both design and color are always symbolic.

The presiding officer wears the seal of the seminary indicating that he is authorized to act on behalf of the institution in formal convocation.

THE GRADUATION PROGRAM

May 22, 1992

PRESIDENT ROY L. HONEYCUTT, Presiding

PRELUDE: For All the Saints ..... SINE NOMINE
The Lord's My Shepherd ..... CRIMOND
Be Thou My Vision ..... SLANE

PROCESSIONAL: Hymn to Joy ..... BEETHOVEN/SMITH
(Congregation please stand)

Southern Seminary Brass Quintet:
Douglas Smith, Professor of Church Music and
Roger Walworth, Trumpets
Sandra Fralin, Horn
Doug Holm and William Thomas, Trombones
Pianist: Ronald E. Boud, Professor of Church Music

HYMN: Crown Him with Many Crowns ..... DIADEMATA
Directed by Hugh T. McElrath, V.V. Cooke Professor of Church Music

Crown him with many crowns, The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns All music but its own:
Awake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King Thro' all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife For those he came to save;
His glories now we sing Who died, and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring, And lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of peace, Whose pow'r a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease, And all be pray'r and praise:
His reign shall know no end, And round his pierced feet
Fair flow'rs of paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of love; Behold his hands and side,
Those wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified:
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou has died for me:
Thy praise and glory shall not fail Thro'out eternity.

INVOCATION ..... Larry L. McSwain
Provost

RESPONSIVE READING ..... C. Anne Davis
Dean, Carver School of Church Social Work

For God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

So we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us.
II Corinthians 5:19-20a RSV

And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, for the equipment of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for building up the body of Christ.
Ephesians 4:11-12 RSV

As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace;

Whoever speaks, as one who utters oracles of God; whoever renders service, as one who renders it by the strength which God supplies;

In order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.
I Peter 4:10-11 RSV

Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but be an example for the believers, in your speech, your conduct, your love, faith, and purity.

Do not neglect the spiritual gift that is in you.
I Timothy 4:12, 14a TEV

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped.

But made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name,

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2-3:11 NIV

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS —
The Honorable Jimmy Carter
39th President of the United States

HYMN: "We Are Called To Be God's People" ..... AUSTRIAN HYMN

We are called to be God's people,
Showing by our lives His grace,
One in heart and one in spirit,
Sign of hope for all the race.
Let us show how He has changed us,
And remade us as His own,
Let us share our life together
As we shall around His throne.

We are called to be God's servants,
Working in His world today;
Taking His own task upon us,
All His sacred words obey.
Let us rise, then, to His summons,
Dedicate to Him our all,
That we may be faithful servants,
Quick to answer now His call.

We are called to be God's prophets,
Speaking for the truth and right;
Standing firm for godly justice,
Bringing evil into light.
Let us seek the courage needed,
Our high calling to fulfill,
That we all may know the blessing
Of the doing of God's will.

CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS

CHARGE TO THE GRADUATES AND PLEDGE ..... Roy L. Honeycutt
President
Emmanuel L. McCall
President, Southern Seminary Alumni Association

A SENDING FORTH

DR. HONEYCUTT: The granting of this diploma marks your assumption of new relationships and new responsibilities, both to The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and to the church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

DR. McCALL: You are officially made one of the alumni of the Seminary. You are now responsible for a finer quality of leadership for the church. People will expect you to be a reliable guide in the realm of morals and ethics and a sure guide to right relationships with Almighty God.

GRADUATES: As a member of the graduating class of May, 1992, and in the presence of God and these witnesses, I promise to hold my degree so that no loss will come through my holding.

DR. HONEYCUTT: With confidence we send you forth from this campus to join the thousands of God-called men and women who have preceded you.

DR. McCALL: We believe the education you have received here has launched you on a lifetime learning process which will make you effective in ministry. You have been blessed. Now you must be a blessing to others.

GRADUATES: I pledge fidelity to the heritage of Southern Seminary/and loyalty to my brothers and sisters in Christ/to the end that the kingdom of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ.

DR. HONEYCUTT: We send you forth with the prayer that God will guide you. We hope that however far your journey takes you that you will visit this campus often. If you cannot return to walk under these beech trees, we hope you will make the trip in imagination and memory.

DR. McCALL: But wherever you are, may the Holy Spirit use you as a witness to introduce men and women to the God and Father of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

GRADUATES: I acknowledge the debt I owe to Alma Mater/for the opportunity I have had to nurture mind and spirit/in an environment of Christian commitment and culture.

DR. HONEYCUTT: You have received from the hands of countless Southern Baptists, sent through their churches, a generous portion of the cost of your education for ministry.

DR. McCALL: Many of these donors do not know you and have never visited the Seminary campus. By faith, a portion of their lives has been minted and channeled through Southern Seminary into your life because they hoped for more excellent ministers of the Gospel.

DR. HONEYCUTT: Gratitude requires not only that you strive to fulfill their hopes, but also that you strive to transmit their hope for competent ministers to the hearts of others.

DR. McCALL: We trust that you will not only be a supporter of Southern Seminary but that you also will be a solicitor of such support to the end that future generations of ministers may be accorded even richer opportunities than have been yours.

GRADUATES: I pledge to seek to perpetuate this opportunity for future generations/that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ may ever have competent leaders.

DR. HONEYCUTT: Your gratitude to all who have had a part in your education, including the faculty, can best be expressed by your faithfulness as a Christian minister.

GRADUATES: May the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ uphold me in all my days/that I may be found faithful to the high calling of the ministry of the Gospel.

DR. McCALL: Welcome to the corps of alumni of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, soldiers of Christ in truth arrayed.

*"THE SEMINARY HYMN": "Soldiers of Christ, in Truth Arrayed" . . . . . MENDON
(Written for the first commencement of the Seminary in 1860, by Dr. Basil Manly, Jr., and sung at every commencement since.)

Soldiers of Christ in truth arrayed,
A world in ruins needs your aid:
A world by sin destroyed and dead;
A world for which the Saviour bled.

His Gospel to the lost proclaim,
Good news for all in Jesus' name;
Let light upon the darkness break
That sinners from their death may wake.

Morning and evening sow the seed,
God's grace the effort shall succeed.
Seedtimes of tears have oft been found
With sheaves of joy and plenty crowned.

We meet to part, but part to meet,
When earthly labors are complete,
To join in yet more blest employ,
In an eternal world of joy.

BENEDICTION . . . . . S. Milburn Price
Dean, School of Church Music
