REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS.

Your Committee on State Missions report, that they have obtained from the report of the State Mission Board to the late session of the General Association, the following facts: Amount received for State Work $5,078.55, of which amount Elkhorn Association contributed $386.55. Number of Missionaries employed 37; Churches supplied 42; Number baptized 373; Sunday-schools organized 13. This shows a decrease from last year, both in the amount collected and the results accomplished, but an increase in the number of missionaries employed for the present year, while the balance in the treasury this year is in excess of that of last year.

While appreciating the vital importance of, and necessity for, this work, we do not think we need say anything, at this day, to impress this upon the minds of the brethren of our churches, but simply to lay these facts before them; and, in view of their logical teachings, to cry out to them, Help! men of Israel, HELP!!

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. LEWIS, Chairman.

After prayer by J. W. Warder, W. H. Felix preached from Psalm xcii: 14, "They shall still bring forth fruit in old age."

Adjourned after prayer by W. T. Jolly.

R. M. Dudley was chosen as the delegate of this Association to the S. B. Convention, with T. Warn Beagle as alternate.

Buck Run church having moved its church-house within the bounds of Franklin Association, asked for a letter of dismission to unite with that body, which was granted.

Upon motion, the Executive Board was directed to appropriate such portion of the surplus funds remaining in the treasury as in their judgment may seem proper, to assist in extinguishing the debt on the church-building at Ashland, Ky.

T. T. Eaton, D. D., editor of the Western Recorder, by general consent, addressed the body in the interests of that paper.

R. M. Dudley read the ### REPORT ON EDUCATION.

There was never pronounced a more pernicious error than the old saying, "Ignorance is the mother of devotion." Ignorance may be the mother of the various systems of superstition and idolatry, but it is not the mother of the religion of the Bible. The first command that sprang from the lips of our Creator as His eye rested upon the darkness that was on the deep was, "Let there be light!" The inspired apostle, using this as a figure, said: "God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined into our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." As knowledge and holiness are essential elements of the divine character, so are they essential elements of power in that kingdom that He has established among men. Pity 'tis that education and religion should ever be divorced. They are the two pillars that support the temple of our Christian civilization. To educate is one of the plain and far reaching injunctions of Holy Writ. This education must be commensurate with the range of man's capabilities and the sphere of his activity and duty, and all must be "in the Lord." That is, a loving and intelligent regard for God is to pervade the sphere of knowledge and instruction. It is much to be feared that we Baptists have not appreciated the full value and importance of the educational idea, either as a factor in the moulding of opinion and character, or in the development of the highest strength and efficiency of individual life. If we did, we surely would so bestir ourselves in a generous consecration of our substance to the blessed cause of education, that our school treasury would be filled to overflowing. A starveling college, brethren, is a reproach to our zeal for the Lord of hosts, and an evidence of a half-way appreciation of one of the most powerful and useful instruments for good known to men. We urge, therefore, the two-fold duty: (a) A larger and more generous sympathy and support of all our schools and colleges. (b) A more liberal education for our youth, in our own schools of learning.

R. M. DUDLEY,

W. H. FELIX.

T. WARN BEAGLE.

Discussed by R. M. Dudley, T. Warn Beagle and B. Manly. Pending the discussion, T. Warn Beagle offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That, inasmuch, as the Trustees of Georgetown College have instructed Drs. Dudley and Pratt to raise, as speedily as possible, the endowment of the Memorial Chair of Elkhorn Association,

Therefore, we, ministers and laymen, invite them to visit our churches, promising to aid them in their effort.

The report and resolution were adopted.

The hour for preaching having arrived, J. M. Frost, D. D., preached from 1 Cor. xv: 38. "But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body."

The Moderator announced the following committee on Baptist Ministers' Aid Society, viz: J. S. Kirtley, G. W. Hill and J. M. Lewis.

After prayer by T. T. Eaton, the Association adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The body re-assembled at 2 o'clock, and was led in prayer by J. S. Gatton.

W. H. Felix addressed the Association in behalf of the Orphan's Home, and after an appeal by Thomas Rodman, a collection was taken, amounting to $76.21.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

DEAR BRETHREN:

We beg leave to make the following report of our acts since the last meeting of the Association. At the last session of your body we were directed to hold four S. S. and Missionary Meetings in different portions of the Association. The first was held with the Mt. Freedom Church, which was thought to have been beneficial to that Church. No other one was held from the fact that it did not suit the churches where we wished to hold the meeting, to have it.

We are pained to report, that with the exception of one mission, the churches have not contributed as liberally as heretofore. Finding that some of the churches were failing to send their usual contributions, circulars were sent to the pastors of these churches as a means of stimulating them to their duties, and committees were appointed to urge the churches to complete the quota assigned them, but they have not responded very liberally.

Aid has been given during the year to four of the churches in the Association to enable them to sustain their pastors. The amounts appropriated to each will appear in our Treasurer's report.

During the year our beloved co-worker, Richard S. Henderson, who has been a member of the Board for ten years, has gone from his labors here to the Heavenly rest above, and we mourn that we no more shall have the benefit of wise counsels.

To you, who have so often met him in these annual convocations, we need not speak in his praise. May the example of his faithfulness and usefulness in Christ's service, stimulate and incite us to work more faithfully in the Master's cause.

REPORTS FROM THE CHURCHES.

MT. FREEDOM.

Bro. J. C. Freeman, the pastor, reports very encouragingly of this church. The brethren keep up weekly prayer meetings and have an excellent Sunday School all the year. They also have a Mission Sunday School at High Bridge. He has met all his appointments, and no matter what the weather was, always found a congregation to speak to.

NICHOLASVILLE.

Bro. T. Warn. Beagle reports for 11 months, having preached 47 sermons, made 6 speeches, attended 42 prayer meetings and made 75 visits. The congregations are increasing, and the Sunday School much more efficient. The general spirit of the church is better and more hopeful. They have recently repaired and improved their church building at a cost of over $900.

PARIS.

Bro. E. S. Alderman has been pastor of this church for the last six months, and his reports are very encouraging as to the future of this church. The congregations are keeping up well, and all their services are very much better attended than they have been. One most excellent feature in his report is that "they are working for more general and systematic contributions." They have lately thoroughly repaired their church building.

CLOVER BOTTOM.

Bro. C. M. Riley has been pastor of this church, but has resigned. they do not report much progress. They have now called Bro. M. L. Thomas.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, located at Atlanta, Ga., is engaged in a most important and extensive work. The work is to give the Gospel to the destitute portions of the Southern States, both among the white and colored population, among the Indians of the West, to aid in erecting church buildings, and also have charge of our mission work in the Island of Cuba. This is a most gigantic work, and needs as well as deserves the most liberal support of our churches. According to the report of S. B. Convention, the following statistics of work are given:

Laborers employed, 287; churches and stations supplied, 1,114; Schools organized, 431; churches built, 306; Baptisms, 4857; amount expended, $89,177.32.

We invite special attention to the work in Cuba. The remarkable outpouring of the Spirit on our work there continues. Thousands are embracing the true faith, and the hope is that this island at no distant day will be reclaimed from the religious superstition that has long engrossed the people.

T. J. STEVENSON, Chairman.

Adopted.

The Association accepted the invitation of Providence Church to hold its next session there August 13, 1889.

H. C. Roberts was chosen to preach the next Introductory Sermon, F. H. Kerfoot, alternate.

CORRESPONDING LETTER.

The Elkhorn Association of Baptists to the Associations with whom she corresponds, sends Christian greeting:

BRETHREN:—We are now in session with the church at Mt. Vernon. A deep religious feeling pervades the body, and this promises to be one of the most pleasant and fruitful sessions that the Association has held. Some of our churches have enjoyed gracious revivals and large ingatherings. Nearly all the churches have made their reports to this body. Our contributions have not been, in the main, what we had reason to expect, but some of our churches have done better than ever before.

We hope to see your bodies well represented at our next session, which will be held with the Providence church, Franklin county, August 13, 1889.

E. H. BLACK, Moderator.

B. W. D. SEELEY, Clerk.

Adjourned. Prayer by W. H. Felix.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 16.

The Association was called to order by the Moderator at 9 o'clock, and devotional exercises were conducted by J. Dallas Simmons.

The roll of messengers was called, and the names of absentees erased.

The proceedings were read and approved.

The special committee appointed last year to inquire into the condition of Clear Creek church, through their chairman, J. S. Kirtley, reported as follows:

Your committee to inquire into the condition of Clear Creek church, report that there was a misapprehension as to the request of Clear Creek for such an investigation, and we beg leave to be excused from further duty.

J. S. KIRTLEY, Chairman.

The report was adopted and committee discharged.

J. S. Kirtley read the report of the committee on

BAPTISTS MINISTERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the Ministers' Aid Society, report that at its last meeting the General Association organized this Society through which to care for the aged and indigent Baptist Ministers of Kentucky.

This Society is located at Owensboro with Rev. J. S. Felix, President, and a competent Board of Trustees. We have examined its Constitution and By-Laws, and heartily recommend the Society to the sympathy and support of this Association. We also recommend that the Association request the churches to make annual contributions to its support, such contributions to be made during the month of November each year. Respectfully submitted,

J. S. KIRTLEY, Chairman,

G. W. HILL,

J. M. LEWIS.

An appeal was made for aid, and $100 was raised in cash and pledges. The report was then adopted.

Upon motion, any member of this body attending any Association with which we correspond, is authorized to represent this body.

REPORT ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sunday-Schools beg leave to make the following report:

The general outlook in this department of our Christian work, within the bounds of our Association, is not as encouraging as we would desire. For many years we kept up a Sunday-School Convention which met twice a year, the general influence of which was good. Last year this body decided to make a departure in some of its methods by holding some missionary meetings, and requested the Sunday-School Convention to co-operate in these meetings instead of holding separate conventions. This proposition was accepted by the Sunday-School Convention and one missionary meeting was held, which was partially successful in bringing the brethren together, and it was regarded as very helpful to the community in which it was held.

The Executive Board was not able to secure a place for holding any other additional meetings. So by this combination we have lost our Sunday School Convention. We have no co-operative effort now in our Association in the interest of Sunday-Schools outside of the annual meetings of this body.

From the statistics we find that 23 churches have Sunday-Schools, 3 churches have mission schools. Mt. Freedom, 1; Stamping Ground, 3, and the First Lexington, 1. Six churches report no Sunday-Schools.

In these twenty-eight Sunday-Schools we find 242 officers and teachers, 1,610 scholars, and 120 conversions in the schools.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. RUCKER,
F. H. KERFOOT,
G. B. STOUT.

The report was amended by requesting the Sunday-School Convention to return to its former practice of holding two sessions during the year.

The report was discussed by B. Manly, C. B. Quisenberry, W. J. E. Cox and J. Dallas Simmons, and adopted.

It was resolved that the former committee, J. J. Rucker, J. R. Howard, J. W. Appleton and B. W. D. Seeley be requested to prepare a programme for a Sunday-School Convention this fall at Clover Bottom.

The thanks of the body were tendered the Mt. Vernon church for their cordial hospitality to the Messengers.

The Clerk was directed to have 1,000 copies of the minutes printed, and attend to their distribution.

W. M. Pratt was requested to close the exercises (after the sermon) by some remarks.

E. S. Alderman, preached from Matt. x. 34. "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword."

The proceedings of to-day were read and approved.

W. M. Pratt gave some very interesting reminiscences of his past ministerial life, and during the singing of "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" the messengers gave each other the parting hand.

Prayer was offered by W. M. Pratt.

The Moderator then pronounced the Association adjourned sine die.

E. H. BLACK, Moderator,

B. W. D. SEELEY, Clerk,                      Stamping Ground, Ky.
Faywood, Ky.

The next meeting of the Association will be held with the Providence Church, Franklin County, Ky., August 13, 1889.

CIRCULAR LETTER*On the Importance of our Two Institutions at Georgetown and the Necessity of Enlarged Endowment.

BY WM. M. PRATT.

DEAR BRETHREN:

I know of no subject, that at present, has stronger claims upon your attention than that of this circular.

Parents should regard the intellectual, moral and religious culture of their children, to fit them for success and usefulness in this life and for the possession of eternal glory in the world to come, as the most sacred duty the Lord has imposed upon them. These two institutions were established by our fathers to aid them and us in this all important matter. These institutions have been officered by good, learned, and religious teachers, and the vigilance and attention of parents is required of them to return their pupils to their several homes improved in all these respects. With what success this work has been accomplished is witnessed by the fact that in every one of our churches are to be found those whose intellects have been trained and whose hearts have been won to Christ while at the College or Seminary. If we, as a District Association, have reason to glory in any denominational interest, it is that we have two such institutions within our bounds.

I submit a few considerations that should interest the members of our churches.

First—We should patronize our own denominational schools of learning. Young people are very much influenced in their religious views and moral principles, by their teachers and associates in school. Parents sometimes allow themselves to be influenced, by special inducements, to place their children under instruction contrary to their own religious faith, and they see their mistake when it is past remedy. Moreover we should consider that the success of our denominational schools depends mainly upon denominational patronage.

Second—The spirit of our age demands increased facilities in every branch of education. The leading colleges of our land have received, in the last few years, large gifts and legacies. This has enabled them to offer increased advantages and facilities for mental culture to aspiring students, and this class of students are tending more and more toward such institutions regardless of distance or cost.

Third—Our College at Georgetown is in absolute need of a large increase of its endowment fund to meet the wants of our students and to command the respect of an intelligent community. The salary of our President and Professors are inadequate—no higher than forty years ago and not half as much as are given to professors in the Theological Seminary at Louisville. When a chair is vacated by resignation or death, we cannot fill it with one of high order of talent and experience with the meager salary we are only able to give without diminishing our present endowment fund, which the Trustees of the College are committed not to do. They do not propose to diminish but to increase our present endowment. A pressing need is a fire-proof library room for the safety of what books we have and to utilize the present library room for recitations and other purposes, as the College is straitened in this respect. Moreover their is urgent demand for an increase of books in the Library. We have had very little increase in this respect since the presidency of Dr. Malcom, 40 years ago. The professors and the students should have access to the best books on the subjects of instruction, of history, and of literature, that intelligent men desire to consult and read. We should have a special library fund, the interest of which should be devoted to the purchase of new books just as they come from a teeming press.

A similar fund is greatly needed for renewing and extending the Scientific and Philosophical apparatus. We pray God to put it into the hearts of some of our brothers or sisters to donate a few thousand dollars to these two funds. The interest of such a fund would yearly increase the library and apparatus to illustrate the sciences.

Fourth—There is an opportunity afforded to us, this present year, to place our College on a strong financial basis, such as we have not had hitherto, and may not have for years to come. You have already been advised that a very wealthy brother, of another State, has promised to give a liberal donation to the College, if Kentucky Baptists will contribute one hundred thousand dollars. Many denominational colleges in the North and South and the Theological Seminary at Louisville have shared largely in this brother's benefactions, and now while his mind is turned to us and he stands ready to help us, if we will help ourselves, how can we be indifferent to the time and opportunity. Brethren, my heart sinks within me in the manifest indifference about this matter. Prompt and liberal action in this enterprise will tell on the welfare and prosperity of our Zion through coming ages. Indifference will make us blush with self reproach when we get to heaven.

This College was founded by pious and intelligent Baptists nearly sixty years ago, not only for general educational purposes but particularly for the education of our Christian young men who have the ministry of the Gospel in view. A large number of our most talented and useful ministers have been educated in this College. This last year a good proportion was of this class. Six of the twelve graduates were young ministers of brains, culture and piety. The duty is laid upon us by the Head of the church to afford this class of young men the best preparation for their high and holy calling. Each generation of Baptists of Kentucky should raise this College higher and higher. The first generation, under Giddings, did remarkably well. The second, under Dr. Campbell, did better than the first, and should this generation leave the College in statu quo, and merely glory in the past and hope for the future and do nothing ourselves? Brethren what is our work here on earth? Is it to accumulate, "eat drink and be merry" and leave our accumulations to be enjoyed and perhaps squandered by our heirs. Jesus Christ, our great exemplar, lived on earth to do the will of God and to benefit the generation then living and future generations, through the cycles of time and eternity. To imitate him is the test of one's religion. We appeal to your sense of accountability to God upon this and all other enterprises of Christianity. May we hear, in the judgment, the approbation of our Lord and Master. "well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

To those who are anxious that their daughters shall enjoy like advantage their sons do in scholastic education, we will assure them that they do already at Georgetown. Under the present arrangement of things and by express authority of the Board of Trustees of the College, the young ladies of Georgetown Female Seminary have direct access to such of the College classes that they may desire or are prepared to enter. The friends of education were wise in locating the two institutions in the same place. There is no organic connection between them. They occupy different ground and are under separate management; but the Seminary is only five minutes walk from the College, and it has been found entirely practical and convenient for the young ladies of the Seminary to attend the College classes and get the benefit of College instruction.

It has not been found necessary to make any change in the College classes. The young ladies simply drop into such of the classes as they desire, attend the lecture or recitation, and return immediately to their rooms at the Seminary. This has been sufficiently tried to convince every one who has observed its working, that the plan is feasible, that it is not obnoxious to objections against co-education, and yet it gives the young ladies the benefit of the superior instruction and equipment of the College. Under this state of case, separate endowments are not needed for two institutions like these at Georgetown. The enlarged endowment of the College secures to your daughters equal advantages with your sons. We pray you to seriously consider this matter and act accordingly and quickly.
