Dr. William Augustus Jones, Jr.

September 23 & 25, 1997
The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
Dr. William Augustus Jones, Jr. has served as pastor of Bethany Baptist Church of Brooklyn, New York since 1962. Raised in Lexington, Kentucky, Dr. Jones pastored for approximately three years as pastor of First Baptist Church (Paschal), Philadelphia, Pennsylvania before going to Bethany Baptist Church. In addition to overseeing his church staff of 27, Dr. Jones has both a national radio and television ministry.

Dr. Jones has preached in numerous countries and has served as visiting professor at Colgate Rochester Divinity School, Wesley Theological Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary, Union Theological Seminary and United Theological Seminary. In addition to his earned doctorate from Colgate Rochester Divinity School, Dr. Jones has honorary doctorates from Benedict College, Simmons University, Shaw University and Campbell University. In May, 1993, he received an honorary Doctor of Humanities Degree from his alma mater, the University of Kentucky. In December 1996, he was awarded the Doctor of Literature Degree by Evangelical Reformed School of Theology. He has been cited as “The Dean of New York’s Great Preachers,” by The New York Daily News. He has also authored a number of books including: The Black Church Looks as the Bicentennial, God In The Ghetto, Responsible Preaching and The African-American Church: Past, Present and Future. He was a contributor to A Reader’s Companion to Crossing the Threshold of Hope, a Protestant response to the Pastoral Writings of Pope John Paul II.
