MONTHLY

The field is the world.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me.

If a man love me he will keep my words: and my Father will love him.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

FROM THE STATE EVANGELIST.

The State Evangelist is entering upon the second year's work with praises to God for past blessings, and praying for the Holy Spirit's guidance that he may yet do greater service for the Master in the future.

All things considered, one of the best meetings it has been my privilege to hold was the one recently held with Little Mount church, in Spencer county. Rev. B. J. Davis, pastor.

There were 23 additions; 21 by baptism and 2 by letter. The church was greatly revived and gave $91.01 for State Missions, planned to have preaching two Sundays a month instead of one.

I was entertained in the homes of Brethren Howerton and Ashby, the first week in the former and the last week in the latter's home. Words fail to express the gratitude of my heart for the many kindnesses shown me in both of these Godly, pious homes. May the blessings of Heaven rest upon the parents and the children is my constant prayer.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the under shepherd of this flock, the Rev. B. J. Davis. He has been their pastor for nearly nine years, and in all my experience I have never known pastor and people to love each other better and work more harmoniously together. What a joy it is to labor with a church that is prepared for a meeting, as this church was by the labor and council of their wise and loving pastor, and what a joy to be associated with such a man as Bro. Davis. I believe he is one of the most loyal and helpful pastors it has ever been my privilege to assist in meetings.

Some of the brethren talk of making the amount given for State Missions even one hundred dollars and several I hope will join the Church Building Club. Wish I had time and space to mention other features of the meeting, as well as the names of many of the saints in Israel which constitute this little band of believers. I shall pray for them, and believe they are now, every one, more closely allied to the cause of State Missions than before I was sent to them, and feel that they will hold the State Evangelist up in their prayers for the success of the great work. I go from here to Hyden and then to Hindman in meetings. Pray for me.

Yours redeemed by the blood of Christ,

G. W. ARGABRITE.

BUCK CREEK.

We have organized a Woman's Missionary Society in the Buck Creek church, at Finchville, and we want you to inform us of some mountain missionaries that need support.

We have not definitely decided to support a missionary. Our society has recently been organized. Write us particulars. * * *

Very respectfully,
CORINE LUCILE WEAKLEY.

ASHBYSBURG.

On Sunday night, August 20th, Rev. E.B. Farrar met me in Ashbysburg to hold a meeting. He preached in the M. E. house that night, and next day put up the tent and did the rest of the preaching in the tent.

The meeting continued until Wednesday night, September the 6th. There were 16 or 17 professions and some backsliders reclaimed. I baptized 6 into the fellowship of Onton church, one received by letter, one by relation and one stands approved for baptism, and I hope others will be baptized next Sunday. During the meeting we organized a Sunday School, with Baptist literature and a Baptist superintendent.

Your readers remember that this is the mission of Onton church where I preach every third Sunday, and that Brother Farrar is our associational missionary, so we were doing mission work in the full sense of the word. At the close of the meeting Bro. F. raised for missions $62.93; this includes collections during the meeting. All things considered we had a great meeting and their is a future for the Baptists in Ashbyburg.

E. L. CRAIG.

Missionary pastor, Calhoun, Ky.

LEE COUNTY.

Dear Bro. Bow:

I thought possibly some information concerning my new field, in Lee county, might be appreciated by the readers of the MISSION MONTHLY. I have only been on the field a short time and how my heart goes out for this noble people.

Some weeks ago Bro. R. L. Brandenburg assisted me in a week's meeting at Hill's chapel and ten were added to the church, nine for baptism and one by restoration. I organized a Sunday school there with about 50 enrolled, and all seem to be enthusiastic over the work.

The work at Beattyville is encouraging. We have a fine Sunday school and prayer meeting. On Sunday night I preached from 1st Samuel, 12-20, and one was added to the church by experience. She came from the Presbyterians. We earnestly crave the prayers and sympathy of all.

Yours in the Master's service,
C. T. BROOKSHIRE.

THE BAPTIST BUILDING

BAND.

The appeal is made for at least two hundred names who will give One Dollar per month to the Church Building Fund. This with the understanding that payment will begin as soon as fifty contributors have joined the band.

The following names have been received to date: (Let us promptly hear from others). J. G. Bow, Mrs. J. G. Bow, T. T. Eaton, W. P. Harvey, W. E. Mitchell, T. D. Osborne, J. M. Weaver, E. M. Coleman, Lloyd T. Wilson, C. H. Jones, W. A. Burns, J. A. Bennett, B. F. Swindler, W. H. Felix, W. T. Risque, J. N. Prestridge, J. J. Taylor, A. N. Couch, I. W. Bruner, Pembroke Woman's Missionary Society, Fifth Street Church, Lexington, Ed. Wright, Ludlow church, J. W. Hedden, Eugene Mitchell, H. B. Taylor.

TRIP TRAMPS.

Sunday, Aug. 27, preached at Mt. Olivet, where Bro. F. P. Gates is our missionary. The cause is very hopeful there. Congregations fill the house and three-fourths of the large Sunday School consists of grown people. Monday evening found me at Red House, in Madison county, where Bro. J. E. Cosby, the Lord's servant, was waiting to carry me to his hospitable home. Starting next morning, about 4 o'clock, we drove 26 miles to Tates Creek Association. After pleading for the great cause of missions returned to Berea Tuesday night. Stopped with Dr. Howard Switzer, an old college chum, and his excellent wife; up at 3 a. m. and off for Union Association. Reached Falmouth before 7 a. m. Drove 12 miles to Willow Creek where I met many friends. Twenty and twenty-one years ago I held two meetings at this church. Several of the converts are among the workers now.

Returned to Falmouth and home by way of Latonia. Found a lot of work needing immediate attention. Retired about midnight after two and half hours work. Thursday went to Cloverport to attend Breckinridge Association.

Board met Monday, September 4th. Left city at 4:30 p. m.; went to Springfield and was met by Bro. C. L. Brady. Bro. I. W. Bruner and I were taken out to his elegant home and entertained for the night. Bro. Bruner joined the Baptist Building Band. Wednesday, the 5th, attended Central Association at Bethlehem. Judge Selecman was elected Moderator, Dr. A. C. Graves, of Lebanon, preached the sermon, a most excellent one from the message to the church at Ephesus. Had a delightful day and enjoyed talking to the people about our mission work. Returned to Springfield and next morning took the 5:25 a. m. train for Louisville, boarded the Southern train at Fourth street and went to Keene to attend the Elkhorn Association. Captain J. R. Howard was re-elected Moderator and Malcom Thompson, Clerk. Spoke to the Association and afterwards to the Woman's meeting on the great work of missions. Dr. W. H. Felix, W. T. Risque, and Fifth St. church, of Lexington, formed the Baptist Building Band. Went to Lexington in wagon. Next morning went to Corinth and out to Zion Hill to Owen Association. Had here the full right of way on missions. Found Bro. J. W. Waldrop and B. F. Swindler, both members of the State Board, on hand. Went on to Ludlow and Covington and thence to Louisville.

On Monday, the 11th, went to Winchester and on the 12th to Providence to Boone's Creek Association. Bro. J. H. Conkwright was re-elected Moderator, W. D. Strode, Clerk. Bro. R. L. Brandenburg preached the annual sermon. After speaking on missions in company with Dr. W. P. Harvey returned to Winchester and to Louisville. Wednesday went to Sulphur Fork Association, where the brethren kindly allowed me to speak on missions, even before the body was organized. Returned to Louisville on evening train and on to Bowling Green that night, reaching there after midnight. Took the 6 a. m. train next morning for Bristow and then walked out to the church where Warren Association met on Thursday. F. N. Downer was re-elected Moderator, and W. H. Collins, Secretary. Here Ed. Wright, of Smith's Grove joined the Baptist Building Band. Had a fine opportunity of presenting missions. Bro. J. W. Collins kindly took me in his buggy and carried me to Bowling Green, where I heard the inimitable M. F. Ham preach to a congregation of perhaps 5,000 or 6,000 people. More than a dozen professions that night.

On Monday morning, 19th, left for Ford to look into the prospects of opening a mission there. Preached at night, but the outlook for establishing a Baptist church there not specially flattering. In company with C. T. Brookshire went to Landmark Association arriving at Panola on Tuesday evening and preached to a good congregation at night. Spoke on missions Wednesday and returned to Louisville that night. Early next morning went to Salem Association at West Point. Outlook good for increase in mission work in the Association. Saturday, 23rd, went to Latonia where Rev. J. W. Beagle is pastor. Aiding in the dedication of their splendid church house, after raising almost $1,000 to liquidate the debt. Bro. Beagle, our missionary pastor there, has wrought well and with marked success. There was a debt of about $200 on the old house when he went there, less than a year ago. They paid the debt. There have been 47 additions to the church. The house has been enlarged and greatly improved at a cost of over $2,000. About 200 in Sunday school, large congregation, frequent accessions, and a very hopeful prospect.

EVANGELISTS.

After careful watching of the needs and conditions of the great mission fields of Kentucky, after five years of supervision,, the Secretary is convinced that the solution of the problem is in part in the employment of efficient, competent evangelists. Men who will preach a whole gospel, who will not shun to declare the whole counsel of God, who will teach sinners the way of life, and teach Christians the way of duty, preach missions and teach system to the people.

Bro. G. W. Argabrite is now in his second year as State Evangelist. He has done a good work. We hope in the near future to have other men in the field.

Bear in mind this is not an advertisement for evangelists. The Board is not hunting men who are idle and hunting a job. This is an appeal to individuals, churches or societies who will become responsible for the salary of a State evangelist. We earnestly solicit correspondence with any who are interested in this subject.

Remember an evangelist would collect half or more of his salary upon the field, so that if a church or churches, association, society, or individual, would give us a guarantee fund, of say $600, we would be safe in employing the man. Then only the deficit would have to be made up. Whatever the evangelist lacked of receiving his salary would be paid by those standing for his salary.

J. G. Bow.

P. S. One good brother has just sent me a check for $200 to be divided between the Church Building Fund and the salary of an evangelist. Who'll be the next?

If five more will agree to send $100 each we will put a good man at work for full time..

ASSOCIATIONS.

The Secretary has been very busy. Has attended the following associations since August 1st: Simpson, Blackford, Daviess county, Bethel, South Kentucky, Shelby county, Gasper River, Franklin, Tates Creek, Union, Breckinridge, Central, Elkhorn, Owen, Boone's Creek, Sulphur Fork, Warren, Landmark, Salem, Severen's Valley and Concord.

He hopes yet to reach White's Run., Pulaski, Wayne county, West Union, Mt. Zion, Ohio Valley, Blood River and Graves county.

During the month of August the Secretary travelled 2,700 miles, preached 8 sermons, attended 11 associations and made 17 addresses on missions. In September he has attended 10 associations, preached 4 sermons, made 19 addresses.

MORAL COURAGE.

Good men often make mistakes, and brave men sometimes falter. It often requires more courage to face a situation which has been rendered unpopular by ridicule than to die in an open fight.

Abraham came near getting himself, his wife, and others into serious trouble by telling a half truth when the danger would have been altogether obviated by firmly and boldly standing for the whole truth.

In Kentucky sheep-raising is a very important industry. Many farmers are deterred from entering upon the profitable employment because of the frequent destruction of whole flocks by the worthless dogs in almost every neighborhood. Every sane man knows there ought to be stringent laws regulating the ownership and freedom of the pestiferous canine.

Each fledgling of a legislator resolves to attain to fame by securing proper legislation for the protection of his constituents. The guffaw of the lobbyist and snicker of his seniors soon convinces the would-be reformer that he will only make himself the laughing stock of the assembly. So his good resolutions and praiseworthy aspirations are choked in their incipency.

I believe there is a large and respectable majority of Southern Baptists who are conscientiously opposed to the money basis of representation in the Southern Baptist Convention, but a species of opposition and ridicule has led right thinking people to believe that only a few are yet ready for the needed reform, and they would only secure to themselves the title of "crank" by advocating the seemingly unpopular measure. There is no excuse either sensible, Baptist, or Scriptural, for a money basis in any religious meetings. We do not tolerate anything of the kind in any religious Baptist meetings in Kentucky. I am persuaded very few Kentuckians favor it in the Convention. Let's be men and stand for our principles, advocate our rights and vote our sentiments.

J. G. Bow.

We hope the clerks of each one of the Associations will send two copies of the minutes as soon as they are published. Just direct to J. G. Bow, Louisville, Ky., will be sufficient.

Meets at Norton Hall,
Tuesday, Nov. 7th, at 2 p. m.

J. M. WEAVER,.....President
B. A. DAWES,.....Recording Secretary
J. G. Bow,.....Corresponding Secretary

Remember we will send the "Mission Monthly," the "Foreign Mission Journal," and the "Home Field" one year for 50 cts.

If you receive a sample copy of the Monthly that means an invitation to subscribe. Twenty-five cents per year. The KENTUCKY
MISSION MONTHLY, *Our Home
Field*, and the Foreign Mission Journal one year for 50 cts. Send stamps if more convenient.

The outlook for our work is more hopeful than at any time in the history of Kentucky Baptists.
The people are waking up, they are better informed about missions; associations, churches and individuals are increasing their contributions. We confidently expect this year to show advancement on all lines of work.

Bro. J. E. Gardner, our missionary in Gasper River Association, reports a church organized at Sugar Grove with 12 members.
C. J. Bolton reports a church organized at Kosmosdale with 13 members. Bro. S. H. Tabb aided Bro. Bolton in the meeting at Kosmosdale. They had to close on account of diphtheria being an epidemic in the community. They expect to renew the meeting just as soon as circumstances will admit.

If we can double our State Mission contribution this year, we can easily double our contributions to Home and Foreign Missions in a few years to come.
There are four Associations which meet this last week in September, and all of them meet the same day. It will be impossible for the Corresponding Secretary to reach more than two of them, and this winds up the work for September.
This is written on Wednesday night, and on Thursday I go to Concord Association at Dallalsburg.

A GOOD MEETING ON A BAD CREEK.

Dear Bro. Bow:

God has been good to us, and our work is prospering. Our meeting in Leslie county, on Hell fur Sartin, resulted in 47 accessions and the organizing of a new church in a strategic community.
Besides the people of the Lord were much revived. Bro. Osborne is laboring hard and doing a good work. I assisted him in baptizing 29 on the 20th inst; the rest were to be baptized later. Bro.
Osborne was elected pastor of the new church. We shall receive two new churches into our Association this year. We want to give what was apportioned to us for missions. We are getting along well at Hindman. The collection of subscriptions was easy and almost delightful. Expect to finish house by Nov. 1. Yours,
A. S. PETREY.

ORLINDA, TENN.

Dear Bro. Bow:

Enclosed find 25 cents renewal for Kentucky Mission Monthly. I enjoy it. Do not want to be without it. I am always eager for news from Northeast Kentucky. Have just read your account of your doings and goings. Surely you are a busy man. May God guide you and give you strength for every duty.

Fraternally,

W. C. PIERCE.

Could every white Baptist in Kentucky pay the postage on a letter every week? Then if so, could not every Baptist in Kentucky give that much to missions every week? That would amount to $210,000. If they would give that much, then we could give $50,000 to each of Foreign, Home, State and District Missions and have money enough left to pay all expenses, and beyond the $50,000 for State Missions could employ six state evangelists for full time in the field. Surely two cents a week is not much for any one to give, any one for whom God gave His Son, for whom Christ gave His life. Then many of us will give, five, ten, a hundred times that much to missions. Surely we would think the millennium was coming.

The receipts for September are more than 50 per cent. in advance of last September. In fact, they are so good we are really afraid we are getting some of the October receipts and we may fall behind next month. Brethren, see to it that the money continues to come in. We are enlarging the work and shall need increased contributions.

There is not a man or woman in Kentucky who is prepared to write a report on Foreign Missions that does not read the Foreign Mission Journal for twelve months. He or she is not prepared to write an intelligent report on Home Missions unless Our Home Field has been carefully read. No one is prepared to write a report on State Missions who does not read the KENTUCKY MISSION MONTHLY. All these mission journals will be sent to you one year if you will send us 50 cents in stamps.

SUBSCRIBERS.

Many of our subscribers are in arrears. Frequently it is carelessness, thoughtlessness, sometimes indifference. Stop and think. The printer has to be paid every month, the postage has to be paid before the paper leaves the post-office. The expense at our end of the line has to be met promptly.

Some of our subscribers are behind as much as two years. Look at your name on your paper. If there is a blue pencil mark under your name, that means you are in arrears. If you are behind more than one year we will put two marks under your name this time. Now if you want your paper stopped, please pay up your arrears and notify us and the name will be erased from mailing list. We hope you will pay up and continue the paper. If you want to keep up with the work you cannot afford to let it stop.

We must not give less to Foreign and Home Missions, but we plead for more money for the great work of State Missions.

SOME OF OUR MISSIONARIES

Bro. J. L. Adkins has done a splendid work in Cumberland and Russell counties.

Bro. C. B. Althoff is greatly prospered in his work at Hazelwood.

Bro. G. W. Argabrite, our State Evangelist, is doing good work up in Leslie and Knott counties.

Bro. Geo. E. Baker, the blind preacher, sees and does more than many men with two good eyes. He is pastor of several churches (five I think) and edits a weekly paper.

Bro. R. L. Baker, at Pikeville, is hopefully and successfully prosecuting the work in his new field.

Bro. P. C. Barkley at Eight Mile and M. P. Edwards at Glenview are taking care of these missions of Walnut St. Church.

Bro. W. H. Bayles is missionary pastor at Meadow Home.

Bro. E. W. Barnett at Corbin is taking fine hold upon his new work.

Bro. J. W. Beagle at Latonia is happy in the great success of his work, his large Sunday School, splendid congregations and new house.

Bro. F. P. Gates, Mt. Olivet, has been sick.

Bro. J. E. Gardner, our missionary at Penrod, becomes missionary in Gasper River Association for half time.

Bro. E. H. Brookshire resigned at Albany and is very sick at his son-in-law's, W. M. Kuykendall.

Bro. T. H. Johnson at Bellevue is pushing his work, hoping to get into the lecture room of his future church this fall. Let us help the plucky little band by generous contributions to the Building Fund.

Miss Emma Leachman, our city missionary, has been sorely bereaved in the death of her sister.

Bro. R. R. Noel is doing a noble work in his field, and his people are growing in efficiency.

Bro. A. S. Pretrey is with Evangelist Argabrite in Perry, Leslie and Knott counties.

Bro. C. L. Roberts, pastor at Audubon, reports encouraging progress in his work.

Bro. W. H. Setzer at Jackson is a live-wire and is bringing things to pass.

Brother T. E. Richey at East church, Paducah, is encouraged in his work.

Bro. J. B. Tharp is at Strunk, Ky. He is cramped because they are in a union house.

Bro. Eben G. Vick, Second church, Bowling Green, is happy in the reception of several new members.

Bro. A. Logan Vickers, Ludlow, has been wrestling with a knotty problem, but with patience and perseverance he is beginning to rejoice in the prospect of final triumph.

Bro. T. M. Morton accepts the work at Dawson. His first move is to subscribe to the proposed building all the salary we promise him from the Board. Don't that look like preaching for money?

APPORTIONMENT.

The following suggested apportionment was made by the General Association at the recent session at Russellville. It is not a tax, nor an assessment, but a simple suggestion that you divide the amount asked of your association among the churches, and ask each church to try to raise her part of this amount. Brethren with all our opportunities and ability shall we not increase our contributions and our work?
