KENTUCKY BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Fifty years ago, Matthew Vassar, an American Baptist on a visit to England, read this inscription on a statue at a hospital:

THOMAS GREY,

Sole Founder of this Hospital in his lifetime.

Mr. Vassar said to himself this was done in his lifetime, what can I do in mine? God has given me wealth I will use it in my lifetime.”

He came home to America and founded Vassar College. Institutions built to bless humanity have tongues and tell of the donors. Men die but the institutions live and their voices are immortal.

People who in their lifetime do good make strongest appeals for remembrance. We make this plea for gifts to the Kentucky Baptist Hospital. There is now on hand one hundred dollars, the gift of a Baptist woman, God bless her. Payments may be made for a period of five years. Please sign and return.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

This is a critically hopeful time for the world to become Christian. Conviction regarding the hopefulness of solving correctly world-problems should dispel indifference, doubt and misgivings. Our mission as soldiers of Christ is to fight and not to surrender. The love of Christ for the world constrains us to find a solution for the problems which now confront our Home and Foreign Boards. The task of the Home Board is to disciple twenty-two million lost souls and train them for efficient service in the Master's cause. The Board must strengthen and enlarge its ten important departments. It would be a calamity for Dr. Gray to report a debt after a year of such fruitful results. Mighty victories have been achieved and we must give liberally that all bills may be met.

The Foreign Board never faced such marvellous opportunities. The doors of heathen nations are open as never before to the herald of the Cross. Four hundred million people in China, two hundred million in India, one hundred million in Africa offer most inviting fields for successful missionary operations.

"Wider and wider the gates of the nations swing,

Clearer and clearer the marvellous prophesies ring,

Go forth ye hosts of the living God

And conquer this world for your King."

The missionaries in foreign lands have had notable success the present year and will make encouraging reports to the Southern Baptist Convention in Nashville.

Let Kentucky Baptists with one united effort pile our love gifts higher than ever before and enable our Boards to achieve a mighty victory. Hasten the funds to this office.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

We have raised for Foreign Missions to date, $20,445; amount needed during April, $25,555. This is $3,000 more than we raised last April.

We have received for Home Missions, $15,816; amount needed during April, $16,184.

Amounts given by different States to Foreign Missions:

Kentucky in Comparison With Other States

Virginia, $38,954.19; Georgia, $36,599.84; South Carolina, $30,944.41; North Carolina, $21,183.53; Kentucky, $19,186.53.

In gifts to Home Missions Kentucky stands second.

PASTORS, SUPERINTENDENTS AND TEACHERS, LISTEN.

April the 12th has been designated as Missionary Day in the Sunday Schools. On that day Missions will be the only subject studied in the Baptist Sunday Schools in the Southland. We ought to make much of it.

At the least calculation Home and Foreign Missions should receive not one cent less than $100,000.00 from the 16,000 schools among our Southern Baptists. This sum will not be realized if we undertake the task in a haphazard way. Every pastor with his Superintendent and teachers should decide upon something definite for the whole school and then ask each class to strive to raise a definite amount of the aggregate.

It will take effort and planning and giving but why not do something worth while? It is easier to do big things than not to do them.

In largeness there is enthusiasm and life.

Little things create little notice. Our Ky. schools ought to send in more than $8,000 as a result of the proper observance of Missionary day in the Sunday Schools.

All together for one, hard pull. Pastors, Superintendents, Teachers and Pupils, I appeal to you to do your dead level best for Missions in the school on April the 12th.

Ours is a favored lot, those who sit in darkness need the light and blessings of our gospel. There has never been a more urgent hour in the history of Southern Baptists than now.

We must pay the heavy debts on both the Home and Foreign Boards. On May the first, let "Victory" be the word that shall crown our efforts. How can we fail with such a Saviour as our Captain?

May God give us the desires of our hearts.

W. M. WOOD,

Vice President of Foreign Mission Board for Ky.

A PLEA FOR HOME MISSIONS.

W. E. Hunter, Vice President for Kentucky.

Kentucky Baptists, do you realize that we are in about thirty days of the time when the Books of the Home Board will close for this Convention year? Do you know what we do for Home Missions must be done in the next few weeks. If we go to the Convention out of debt there must be some heroic giving between now and April 30th. Kentucky ought to pay every dollar of her apportionment; she must do it; will she do it?

Why Give to Home Missions?

1. Because Home Missions stand for the salvation of the race, the whole human family. Nothing less than the whole gospel to the whole world will carry out the programme of Home Missions. While the Home Board stands for the redemption of the whole world, it stands in a more essential way for the salvation of the home land. It would be worse than folly for Southern Baptists to give all heed and attention to distant lands and at the same time neglect the home field. If I understand correctly, the mission problem before us, can be summed up in a statement like the following: The evangelization of the world is dependent on the Home Field for men and money. To neglect Home Missions is to neglect Foreign Missions. To fail at home is to fail abroad.

To neglect Home Missions is in principle the same as an army neglecting its baggage and supplies. For an army to be able to march and fight, it must give heed to its food supplies and belongings.

The Home land is the world's supply station. It is the training school for the world's workers. The Seminary for its preachers. The policy and doctrines of the churches abroad will largely depend upon the policy and doctrines of the churches at home. If we expect to make Baptists on foreign fields we must send them Baptists from the home field. To give the world a pure gospel we must have a pure gospel at home. Dr. W. E. Hatcher never gave utterance to wiser words than these: "It is at least as essential to save what we already have as to save that which is lost."

2. Because of what the Home Board is doing. The Board is helping to pay the support of about 1,200 co-operative missionaries, at a cost of about $100,000 per year.

It is maintaining thirty-four mission schools, with an attendance of more than 5,000 pupils at a cost of about $50,000 a year.

It has an evangelistic force of twenty-four workers, preaching the gospel to the lost and "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." Last year these workers reported 4,982 baptisms, and 6,978 additions to churches.

It is paying half the support of thirty-five missionaries among the negroes at a probable cost of $15,000. The Board is giving the gospel story to at least 400,000 Mexicans in Texas and 100,000 Indians in Oklahoma.

It is giving the gospel to the immigrants and foreigners, both at the ports and in the interior cities of the South, at a cost of $17,630.

3. Because of the immediate needs of the Board.

The Board needs over $300,000 by April 30th to close its books out of debt. For Kentucky Baptists to meet their apportionment they must raise in the next few weeks about $17,000. Brother pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and fellow workers, won't you pray that the Lord will make His people a liberal people in time of need. Brethren, listen to some plain commands from God's words: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." "Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved."

KENTUCKY TAKING HER LEGITIMATE PLACE.

The latest from Treasurer Mell of the Home Board shows that Kentucky stands second in gifts to Home Missions. Georgia leads. Then follows Kentucky, Virginia, Missouri, Alabama and South Carolina. The other States are far in the rear. Kentucky must send us $16,184 before April 30th.

I spoke in Jellico on Sunday. They have to pay $12,000 in their new house of worship before May 4th. Grippe and small pox depleted the congregation, nevertheless under the leadership of their consecrated pastor they gave $1014 to Missions and will make it $1500. This under the circumstances is notable. They will give worthily through the Sunday School next Sunday.

Let every Sunday school rally to our aid next Sunday. Pastors will please urge our members to give the Sunday eggs to missions during April.

Those wishing to be appointed messengers to the Southern Baptist Convention will please send me their names. Kentucky must be well represented. It will be a most interesting session.

Everybody favors holding the Convention next year in Houston, Tex. It could have gone to Texas long since if the Texans had agreed among themselves as to the place.

ASSOCIATION-TO-ASSOCIATION CAMPAIGN.

The conferences have been productive of much good. Arrangements have usually been perfected for an every-member canvass in each church. The women are asked to give the Sunday eggs to Missions through April, as an additional gift. If pastor and the friends of missions will energetically push this matter, it will bring larger returns.

Let this egg proposition be taken up by pastors in every part of the State.

Every Sunday School has promised a worthy offering in April 12th, or Second Sunday in April. Let no church be overlooked. It is no easy task to gather in about $25,555, for foreign missions and $16,100, for home missions during the remainder of April.

The meetings in Covington and Newport were fine and great good will result. Fourteen of the fifteen churches in Campbell County Association had representatives present.

The workers had a disagreeable time reaching Owenton and Ghent. The rally for Bracken Association was held in Maysville. Good attendance and enthusiasm prevailed.

Cynthiana gave a cordial welcome and the outlook is encouraging. Dr. J. T. Henderson attended Newport, Maysville and Cynthiana meetings. His lectures made a profound impression. At Winchester the idea had gone out that the Conference was for women only. However some of the men were assembled and good results will follow.

Tate's Creek Association was well represented at Richmond. A spirit of optimism prevailed. Richmond expects to give $1,000 to missions before Christmas, under the wise leadership of Pastor H. N. Quisenberry. There is an imperative demand for a new house of worship at Richmond.

The meetings at Lawrenceburg were enthusiastic and promise splendid returns. The prayers and sympathies of every one went out to Sister McCarter, the pastor's wife, who was quite sick. She has nobly aided her consecrated husband in developing the church. Intensive as well as extensive work is demanded in all of our churches. Pastors who do not see much promise for growth in members can develop the members they have. This will greatly aid the on-going of the Kingdom. A representative body met us in Frankfort and a profitable day was spent in planning the work for a worthy harvest. Franklin Association has given largely to the Judson Centennial, yet this only stimulates them to liberal gifts to the support of the regular work. Dr. Eberhardt and Bro. W. S. Farmer are wise leaders.

I preached on Sunday at Lagrange,, where the Sulphur Fork Association was holding a Fifth Sunday meeting.

The fact developed that though we have several churches in Trimble County, there is not a single Baptist preacher. Here is a good field for the right man. South District Association did herself proud by the representative body which assembled in Danville. The churches are led by strong, courageous pastors. We anticipate a notable increase in their gifts to missions.

Dr. Cecil V. Cook is doing a splendid work in Danville. Dr. M. D. Early is already deeply entrenched in the affections of the Stanford saints. All the pastors in the Association are aflame with missionary zeal. Dr. F. F. Brown is accomplishing great things at Harrodsburg, where the first Baptist sermon was preached in Kentucky.

Splendid conferences were held in Somerset and Monticello. Yesterday we had a most interesting conference in London. Pastor H. C. Combs is a wise kingdom-builder.

Dr. C. D. Graves is now with us and renders valuable service. He is surcharged with missionary zeal and enthusiasm and presents plans which are helpful and workable. The people catch his spirit of devotion and optimism.

Today we go to Corbin. Next week we will visit Jellico, Barbourville, Middlesboro, and Harlan, where the campaign will close.

More than sixty Associations have been visited and the cause of Home and Foreign Missions stressed. Great good has been accomplished which we feel will manifest itself by enlarged gifts.

Sacrificial gifts to missions are indispensable to the maintenance of spiritual power in our churches. Evangelization is the primary aim of all our work. When a church ceases to struggle it must die. Many Baptists should be dissatisfied with the outlook and out-put of their lives.

Lexington Training School, Lexington, Ky.

The annual training school for the Baptist churches of Lexington and vicinity was held from March 15th to 20th with the Fifth St. Baptist church of that city, and it can be said that the school was a success in every particular. The enrollment was three hundred and sixty-eight, a gain of one hundred over last years' attendance.

The faculty was a strong one and did admirable work. Brother N. T. Barnes was dean of the school and also taught the "Pupil" section of the manual. The general sec'y was unavoidably delayed in reaching Lexington at the beginning of the school, but upon his arrival found a class organized under the leadership of Brother Barnes and he took up the work already started by Brother Barnes in his absence in the "Management" section of the manual. Miss Margaret Frost taught the third book of the course, "After the Primary, What?" Dr. C. C. Carroll, of Winchester, taught the "Doctrines of Our Faith" during two periods each day. Others who were heard on the program were Brethren E. C. Vaughan, C. W. Elsey, W. H. Porter, F. D. Perkins, J. A. Burns, J. T. Bowden and J. J. Gentry.

Greenville Letter.

Pastor R. H. Tandy writes that "nearly every one of our officers and teachers hold diplomas, but others are taking the course and these are pursuing the work further. A class of thirteen has just completed Book No. 2 and received their seals, and we have just received diplomas for two others. We have an interesting class of fourteen members now at work on Book No. 3.

"Our Sunday school, without special campaigns, has grown to an average attendance of about 180, and we have only 245 members of the church. Our departmental superintendents are doing fine work, and the graded literature in the Primary, Junior and Intermediate Departments is giving splendid satisfaction"

News Item About Sunday School Work At Albany.

Brother Z. P. Hamilton, pastor-evangelist, writes he has organized two Sunday schools during the past month; conducted three classes in the Teacher Training Course; several will receive diplomas in May, and some teachers have already completed three books. Brother Hamilton is planning a great Sunday school rally some time during the summer.

March 21st and 22nd the General Secretary was with Brother Clarence Walker, pastor of the Mt. Freedom church, Wilmore, Ky. Brother E. W. Coakley, pastor of the Nicholasville church, spoke on Friday and Saturday evenings to appreciative audiences. Any pastor desiring a live Sunday school speech by a live pastor, can do no better than to procure Brother Coakley. On Sunday morning it was our pleasure to speak to the Sunday school and afterwards to the church. Again Sunday evening the service was turned over to the Sunday school officers, and once more this scribe spoke to the church on Sunday school problems. A Teacher Training Class was organized, and we shall look forward to the time in the near future when the return trip is made to deliver the diplomas and also hold a three days' institute with these brethren and grade the school for them.

Sunday School Institute, Olivet Church, Howell, Ky.

It was our good fortune to be with Rev. J. F. Griffith and his splendid people of Olivet church, Howell, Ky., for a full and very profitable week of Sunday school work.

Realizing the tremendous asset of a live wide-awake Sunday school and the great necessity of training his workers, Brother Griffith led a class of eighteen through the Normal Manual, Book I, of the Convention Normal Course. And during the week spent with this splendid people, we led these eighteen, together with a number of others, through Book II., "The Graded Sunday School." Twenty of the number doing the work successfully, thus meriting the seals for their diplomas.

Each afternoon we presented the purpose and efficiency of the Graded Sunday school, a religious census of the community was conducted. All were of one mind as to the grading of their school, and on the Sunday following it was accomplished to the apparent satisfaction of every one. Following the grading, a Graduation Service was held and it was our great pleasure to award eighteen Normal diplomas and confer upon the holders of same the degree of "King's Teacher." At the close of the Institute, a class was organized in Book VI., "Doctrines of Our Faith," which is to be led by the pastor. It is his aim that holders of diplomas awarded during this meeting shall obtain the Red Seal during the next few months.

Sunday School Institute, Benton, Ky.

We have just returned from Benton, where we had a part in a week's institute which has just closed. The pastor, Rev. N. S. Castleberry, and Superintendent Price have grasped the correct and helpful idea of an annual Sunday School institute for the benefit of their workers in the Sunday school and church, and through the efforts of Rev. A. E. Cross, the Sunday school evangelist of Blood River Association, a well arranged program was prepared.

The sessions of the school were held each evening and with an inspiring song and devotional service preceding and following the class work, they were made very attractive and helpful to both visitors and students in the classes. We do not believe the importance and great benefit of meetings of this nature held annually in our churches, thus emphasizing the teaching service of the church, can be overestimated. The above meeting offers a splendid example to those who would do likewise.

Just a word, dear friends, about the W. M. U. Training School. We feel that it has a warm place in the hearts of you Kentucky women, for your realization of the need for such a school and your generous help brought it into being.

For three years it was kept alive largely by the women of this State. Six years ago the W. M. U. took it in charge, and all the States have shared with Kentucky in the honor of maintaining this great school, which year by year sends out noble recruits to God's workers all over the wide world.

A crisis has again come in its history. It has outgrown its present equipment, and the necessity confronts us now, right now, of enlarging our borders.

All of our Societies in the South are asked to give to Current Expenses of the school, and to Enlargement to meet this very necessity. This is the only cause in our Southern Zion that is absolutely dependent on our Women's gifts.

Will you not prayerfully and carefully think over what this school means to the advance of God's Kingdom, and not only promptly send the amount of your apportionment, but if you can make larger gifts, without injustice to the other causes, do so for this much needed Enlargement. This session twenty young ladies have had to be housed in rented quarters, at great expense because our school is not large enough.

Now will you without delay take this up and come to our help with your gifts, prayers, thoughts and money.

Send to the Central Committee, in behalf of the Board of Managers,

MRS. G. B. EAGER.

(Heartily endorsed by the Central Committee.)

In order to meet our apportionment for year ending April 30th, 1914, for our Training School, we must raise during April $472.39.

DELEGATES TO W. M. U. AT NASHVILLE

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union will be held at Nashville, Tenn., May 13-18. Place, the McKendree Memorial Methodist Church. Headquarters at the Hermitage Hotel.

Each state is entitled to 20 delegates, besides the Vice-President. In Kentucky we are anxious for the five District Vice-Presidents to go, and at least two others from each district. Send your names to Mrs. Kate C. Hinkle, Box 396, Louisville, Ky., and the Central Committee will make the selection as fairly as possible. Miss Broadus, Mrs. Eager and Mrs. Hinkle will represent the Central Committee, while Mrs. George Green of Georgetown and Mrs. R. R. Tandy of Greenville were the first names sent in, and will be very acceptable delegates.

IN ROYAL SERVICE.

The book that bears this arresting title was written by Miss Fannie E. S. Heck at the request of the Executive Committee of W. M. U. and she sought diligently for aid in securing the most accurate information. As a brief history of W. M. U. during its first twenty-five years of existence, it is invaluable; and while designed especially for this jubilee year, it will always be indispensable for all who care for reliable information. And what can be more inspiring than these records of pioneers in missionary work. Our fore-runners in organizing missionary societies, and our early laborers in the lands afar off! All honors to these heroines of the Cross.

Has your society yet made a study of this book? It is not too late, for a few weeks will compass it. Many individuals should possess it, as a mine of knowledge, a treasury into which one may often search for instruction. Send to Dr. T. B. Ray, Richmond, Va. Cloth 50 cents, boards 35 cents, postage 6 cents.

THE ASSOCIATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

Not only do we feel that this Missionary Campaign from Association to Association is going to tell in the increase of gifts to Home and Foreign Missions, but we feel that it will mean much to W. M. U. work in Kentucky. The thrilling talks Misses Leachman and Priest gave from place to place stimulated the women to greater efforts, giving them a broader vision.

Miss Priest's story of Zung Tata, a Chinese Bible woman, and the great good she has done in going from house to house, brought forth voluntary gifts from eight individuals to support a Bible woman each as their substitutes.

One woman gave the secretary a check for $50 for a Bible woman, saying: "This has cost me a new dining table and a spring suit, but I must have my substitute." Another woman said: "I'll borrow the money and send you a check for the $30 at once, because the Board needs the money. I borrow money to buy cattle, sheep and hogs, and I can borrow it to carry on the Lord's work." She is a maiden lady and runs the farm, as you may guess. And another sent in a check for the full amount at once, seeing the need was so great at this particular time.

But, my dear women, when our receipts for the month of March were totaled, our hearts sank within us. Not only were they not up to the receipts of last March, but fell far below what we had expected. We have been trying to find the cause for this. Some have suggested that our women have allowed the Jubilate offerings to interfere with the regular gifts. We hope this is not the cause, for we have tried very hard to impress the women that the Jubilate offerings must be over and above the apportionment.

Women, we have $8,256.03 to raise before April 30th for Home and Foreign Missions and our W. M. U. Training School. Almost half of our apportionment for the year is yet to be raised. Who is going to fail to do her part? Can we possibly do it in the next two weeks? We cannot, unless each of us prays and works as never before.

A glorious day was spent at Poindexter Union Church, on the W. M. U. Day of the Institute. The Superintendent of our work in the Association had arranged for a strong program. Mrs. W. H. Porter, of Lexington made a fine talk on "Personal Service Work." Mrs. Thomas Rodman, of Louisville, stressed the importance of Y. W. A. work. Miss Stella Cook of Cynthiana, a successful Y. W. A. worker gave, from her view-point, how to succeed in Y. W. A. work. Mrs. Cottrell, of Poindexter, made a fine talk on the duties of the Christian woman. She also took charge of a question box which proved very interesting as the written questions bearing on the work were answered by first one and another. These helped to draw out questions from many concerning their problems. The State Secretary talked on Efficiency in W. M. U. work, and tried to touch on our weakest points, that we might be enabled to strengthen them.

At the noon hour, after the remnants of the feast were gathered up, a conference of the leaders of the four societies represented resulted in plans being laid for the organization of fifteen new societies. Each society represented assuming the responsibility of organizing W. M. S., Y. W. A. or Sunbeam Bands in the nearest church, before April 30. This does not complete our organizing in Union Association but we hope to complete it in the church to church campaign this summer. Our aim for each Association is for a W. M. U. of the four grades, W. M. S., Y. W. A., R. A. and Sunbeam in every church in the Association.

The Smith's Grove Woman's Missionary Society enjoyed a great day March 12th. We had with us Mrs. Hinkle, Miss Sallie Priest and Miss Leachman. We were favored with an address by each of them and our hearts were stirred by their earnest messages. We feel sure the large audience present will study the work with renewed energy and greater love than ever before.

We hope many other societies can have these noble women visit them. It will be an inspiration to higher and nobler undertakings. Mrs. J. W. Ellis, Sec.

Miss Elizabeth Garrott reports another new society organized in Bethel Association at Dripping Spring church. Miss Garrott tells us, too, that the societies in Bethel Association are striving to meet their apportionment by the last of April.

Another new society organized in Long Run Association at Deer Park church, March 24th. The women present at this first meeting were so enthusiastic and earnest, we are looking for a strong society and great work at Deer Park.
