ANXIOUS YET HOPEFUL.

The amounts we are receiving each day for Home and Foreign Missions is most encouraging. Pastors, Churches, Sunday Schools and W. M. Societies must busy themselves gathering funds for Home and Foreign Missions until April 30th. We need on April 10th for Home Missions, $13,757.00

Foreign Missions, $19,744.00

Begin at once and work persistently until your own Church has done its full duty for Home and Foreign Missions. Faithfulness of the leaders in each congregation can save the day. "A great door and effectual is open unto us, and there are many adversaries." Behold, the open door, and not the adversaries.

TITHING.

Only a Few Days Remain.

This is the month and this is the time to tithe faithfully and also give freely, for "He is dead whose hand is not open wide To help the need of a human brother; He doubles the length of his lifelong ride Who of his fortune gives to another; And a thousand million lives are his Who carries the world in his sympathies

To deny
Is to die."

Tithers Miss These.

Give of your means, as Ananias (Acts 5: 1-6); wish to die well, as Balaam (Num. 23: 10); bring an offering, as Cain (Gen. 4:3); be a Gospel worker, as Demas (II. Tim. 4:10); live with God's people, as Gehazi (II. Kings 5:23-27); hear preaching gladly, as Herod (Mark 6:20); minister in the priest's office, as Nadab (Num. 3:2-4); ask for prayers, as Pharaoh (Exod. 8:8); make long prayers, as the Pharisees (Matt. 23:14); be able to prophesy, as Saul (I. Sam. 10:10); have many followers, as Theudas (Acts 5: 36); have the lamp of profession, as the foolish virgins (Matt. 25:1-12)—and yet, after all, be eternally lost.

Waiting!

The Men in the Trenches are waiting
The Recruits are waiting
The Veterans are waiting
The Great Commander is waiting

Is your offering surely in?
Is it the Best you have ever made?
Is it the Best you can possibly do?
It is not yet too late, but—
"The Time is Short."

Insures.

Tithing this year insures greater blessing now and next year.

More.

Fifty dollars given to Missions in April counts more than one dollar given fifty times.

Freely!

The Widow's mite was not despised;
Christ said "this offering small
Is more than all the rich men's gifts
It is the widow's all."
If thou hast much, give plenteously
Give of thy goods a part
Thou shalt be blest abundantly
Great joy shall fill thy heart.

CHINA.

The Chinese Republic comprises one-third of all Asia. The population is 407,253,253. This exceeds any other nation. Fully one-fourth of earth's inhabitants live in her territory. In many sections you find 683 people to the square mile. There are 470,184 Protestant Christians. China has 4,475 Foreign Missionaries and 13,500 native workers.

There are 1,557 walled cities without Missionaries. China, with her unconverted unevangelized millions, offers a mighty challenge to our Baptist hosts. Is our Christian consecration sufficient for the undertaking?

Our Foreign Board began work in 1845. We have ninety-seven churches, eighteen of whom are self-supporting. There are 248 out-stations. We have 13,367 members. Last year there were 3,073 baptisms and 602 added by letter. They have 10,265 in Sunday School and the contributions amounted to $11,728.04. There are fifty-nine male and ninety-five female missionaries and thirty-seven ordained native pastors.

W. D. POWELLEditor

The month of April will test the fidelity and liberality of Kentucky Baptists in regard to Home and Foreign Missions. Less than one month remains, and two-thirds of the amount for Home and Foreign Missions is yet to be raised. What a tremendous obligation! We have placed our hands to the plow and we dare not look back. The Lord commands and we must obey. The Home and Foreign Missionaries have rendered faithful and successful service; the Boards have expended what they were instructed to do by the Southern Baptist Convention. Without fail we must meet our obligations, no matter what sacrifice must be made.

The Home Board through its eight departments of work will present to the Southern Baptist Convention a thrilling report. The Foreign Mission Board will bring cheering news to us from each of the seven countries where they are laboring. They are at work among three-fourths of the inhabitants of the globe. Re-enforcements are sadly needed. The voice of God commands us to go forward. Retrenchment would be dishonoring to our constituency. If there is to be a curtailment in expenses, it must be in matters of dress, pleasure, amusement, food and unnecessary extravagance.

SOUTH AMERICA.

South America is 4,700 miles in length and 3,150 in width. It is nearly as large as North America. It is a continent of Republics. The Republic of Brazil occupies fully one-half of the continent. The population of South America is about 49,000,000. In Brazil the language is Portuguese, elsewhere Spanish is spoken. In Argentina, owing to the influence of Romanism, eighty-four percent of the people are illiterate. The people are debased and debauched by sin, without religion and without conscience. The priests rarely or never study and are given to laziness, drunkenness and sinful immorality. Millions in Brazil look upon the Virgin Mary as their Saviour. The success of our Missionaries in Brazil exceeds that of any other country. There are 764 Foreign Missionaries and 270,000 Christians.

There are 172 churches and 11,616 members who contributed last year $71,640. There were 1,582 baptisms. It is the most prosperous Mission supported by our Board. Reader, do you pray, "Thy kingdom come"? Well, how much are you going to pay this month to bring the kingdom into South America?

AFRICA.

Africa is the largest of the continents except Asia. It is 5,000 miles long and 4,600 in width. The people through the central part of Africa are Negroes, the others are not. About one-fourth of Africa is occupied by Negroes. There are 157,645 inhabitants. The people seem to have no idea of a supreme Creator. They are filled with superstition and their only inheritance is hopeless darkness.

In Southern Africa, Christianity prevails and in Northern Africa the people are largely of the Mohammedan faith. Africa has 2,032,948 Protestant Christians. There are 4,666 Foreign Missionaries and 27,515 native helpers. One-half the inhabitants of the Dark Continent await the light of the Gospel.

Reader, is your faith built around the idea that our duty is to give the Gospel to the lost? "But whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

Southern Baptists opened work in Africa in 1850. We have seventeen churches, 969 members who gave last year $1,577.90. There were 199 baptisms the past year.

A true zeal for Missions should lead one to do something, or do without something, for Jesus' sake. Money given to Missions should be laid aside at some cost.

One-tenth of our church membership pay nine-tenths of the contribution to Foreign Missions.

WANTED—One thousand renewals to the Three Journals.

Yes, we are living under love and grace, that is God is giving us more than He did those who lived under former dispensations this is the reason why we should give more liberally than they did. God gives to us with both hands. Why should not we give to Him in like manner? "When we think of the riches of grace and Christ, that although he was rich, yet for our sakes he became poor, that we, through his poverty might become rich, how dim becomes the luster of silver and gold, and how inadequate, and even unworthy seem to be our most munificent gifts." "When the soul is all aglow with love, it is hard to fix the limit of our giving."

Mr. Isaac Walker, a member of Mt. Moriah church near Kirkmansville in Todd County, died and left his estate "To be given to the Southern Missionary Society of the Baptist Church." He evidently intended it to go to the Southern Baptist Convention for its missionary work. The matter will be settled in the court at Greenville.

Many more of our Baptist people should leave all or a part of their estate to advance the interest of our Master's kingdom.

We are greatly encouraged by the activity of the friends of Missions in behalf of our Home and Foreign work. It would be nothing short of a calamity should Kentucky fail to meet her apportionment. Both men and women, as well as our young people, must not cease praying, giving and soliciting until the closing of the books on April thirtieth. We lose considerable money every year for these important objects because individuals are not approached on the subject of Home and Foreign Missions.

The birds-eye view which we had of the State W. M. U. work in the recent whirlwind campaign gives us greater hopes of a victorious close of the Convention year. The majority of our societies are watching closely the apportionment cards and the reports of the most have been, "we are expecting to reach it." And yet we realize that the very best of our societies and those most interested in the work were the ones represented at those meetings.

Let us continue to pray, give and do our best to encourage the other sister to do the same, that we may reach the standard set for us.—K. C. H.

It was my pleasure to spend Sunday at Greenville with Pastor R. H. Tandy. They have a flourishing Sunday School. Mr. T. O. Jones, a most cultured and accomplished attorney-at-law, is the wide-awake superintendent. Bro. Jones has the first A-1 Sunday School that was reported in Kentucky this year. They have outgrown their present quarters and are planning for a much needed Sunday School workshop in the near future. They have seventeen classes. One hundred and forty-five were in attendance last Sunday. On Missionary Day they gave $387 to Home and Foreign Missions. Superintendent Jones will never be satisfied until he has four or five hundred in regular attendance on the school. Pastor Tandy and his good wife are continually receiving tokens of love and affection from his people who heartily cooperate with him in all his forward moves.

It was my pleasure to attend the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Pulaski County Association at Burnside on April 6th. It was an all-day institute. I spoke at night on "Our Baptist Women and Efficiency." The meeting seemed to be a success and every one was filled with enthusiasm. Mrs. W. E. Hunter is the Superintendent for the Association and a very wise and tactful leader. There were twenty-five present. These women come at great sacrifice and it marks a degree of heart-felt interest in the Mission Cause that we should love to see in our women. There are thirty churches in this Association that gave nothing last year to Home and Foreign Missions. Mrs. Hunter and others sent letters to women in these churches and received answers from eighteen, assuring them that offerings would be taken. One woman has already sent in quite a creditable gift from her church. This will be one very effective way to reach the churches who are non-producers.

If working men would give one-tenth of the salaries they receive for two days each week to Missions during the month of April it would amount to a considerable sum. A farmer might sell a pig, a calf or a colt and give the proceeds to Missions.

Funds for Old Ministers should be sent to Dr. J. D. Maddox, Owensboro, Ky.

Elder W. T. Short, Mardis, Ky., reports splendid collections for Missions at Good Hope and Rolling Fork churches. A live pastor by precept and example will constrain his people to give to worthy objects.

Central City Baptist Sunday School gave $300 to Home and Foreign Missions on Missionary Day.

A young lady, teaching a country school, sends us $25 for Missions.

Dr. Crawford H. Toy, the distinguished Hebrew scholar, was appointed by our Foreign Board a missionary to Japan in 1861. He did not go, and later made shipwreck of his faith. When God calls, we must obey.

What is to become of the great number of staunch men and women who have worked their way through College and Seminary and long to obey God's voice by investing their lives in the Foreign Mission enterprise but cannot do so because Baptist men and women withhold means for their support?

Dr. Weston Bruner will report 17,000 accessions to Baptist churches the past year through the labors of our Home Board Evangelists. This is fine! Reader, how much have you given this month for Home Missions?

Our Mission Cause in Kentucky is prospering and growing. It would be very dangerous to make any changes or combinations which might stunt this steady growth. It is a wise thing to let well enough alone.

W. Thos. Hamlin, Missionary Colporter in Letcher County, has had seventy-six accessions to our Baptist churches through his labors during the past two or three months. He needs a tent for work in that inviting field during the Summer. What church or association has a tent that they will give or lend to our beloved brother for use during the Summer months? We heartily commend him and his work.

Mr. S. M. Swemmer writes: "It is true that fully one-half of those missionaries in the larger cities of Japan are engaged in educational or literary work, or in the general administration of mission work, but surely the work of evangelization should not take second place to any other task."

The parsonage of the Second Baptist church at Williamsburg was destroyed by fire on last Sunday night. The church building was badly damaged.

He who said, "Go and disciple the nations," is ever present when the message is faithfully delivered to convict, convert and save whom He will.

In the vast territory of Siberia, deficient in solar warmth, yet more terribly in need of the rays of the Son of Righteousness, are found 5,700,000 people.

The church that is self-centered dies of dry rot which the church that obeys the great Commission prospers in spite of the world, the flesh and the devil

Some problems in Missions are more easily ignored than solved.

"O grant us love like Thine,
That hears the cry of sorrow
From heathendom ascending to the throne of God;

That spurns the call of ease and home
While Christ's lost sheep in darkness roam!

"O grant us hearts like Thine,
Wide, tender, faithful, childlike,
That seek no more, but live to do Thy will!
The hearts that seek Thy kingdom first,
Nor linger while the people thirst."

MRS. HENRY TAYLOR.

This good woman passed to her heavenly reward in Colombo, Ceylon, on February 11th, 1915. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor lived in Baltimore, and often visited us in our home in Mexico. They were very deeply concerned about every phase of Missionary endeavor. After our return from Mexico, they visited us in our home in Jackson, Tenn., en route to California where a few days later Brother Taylor fell asleep. Mrs. Taylor took our daughter Mamie who is now Mrs. W. P. Wilks, twice around the world, once going East and once going West. On the latter trip, they were in the same company with Hon. William Jennings Bryan and his family. Mrs. Taylor spent much of her time in travel and was fond of Ceylon. She seemed to have better health there than elsewhere. Early in the year we had a letter from her promising us a visit in the near future, but now she has passed over the River. A letter received this morning from the American Consul informs me that the body was being shipped that day to America and will, no doubt, be laid to rest by the side of her devoted husband. Brother and Sister Taylor were very wealthy, lived very simple lives, were devoted Christians and sought in every way possible to promote the interests of Christ's Kingdom. Many will rise up in the last day to call them blessed. I never had truer and better friends.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PROGRESS.

J. M. Price.

Our report for March is very gratifying. Kentucky enrolled six more A-1 Schools (there were only 7 granted in all the other States combined). She now stands first in the number of A-1 Schools as well as Red and Blue Seals. She received the second largest number of Red Seals and the third largest of Blue Seals. Good progress was made also in Normal Diplomas, Post Graduate Diplomas and Gold Seals. There are several training classes in the State to finish in the next two or three months and several Schools that are planning to become A-1. The outlook is hopeful, yet there are a number of churches that ought to have A-1 Schools that have not. And many people who ought to be taking the Normal Course and are not. Things could be better.

The time of year is on now when new schools might well be organized in country districts that cannot easily have them in the Winter months. Some have already reported this month. Let others follow suit.

Spring weather also makes a favorable time for Sunday School Conventions. Every Association should have one. Now is the time to fulfill the resolution passed at the District Associational Meeting last Fall. Let the committees appointed then get busy.

The results of Missionary Day were encouraging indeed. The reports are not all in yet, but the collection seems to have gone far ahead of any preceding year. Some schools more than doubled their last year's collections. It has done much to increase the Mission gifts and at the same time furnish helpful information about our supreme task—the winning of the world to Christ.

The writer regrets exceedingly his inability to accept the offer of the State Board to become State Sunday School Secretary. It was through no lack of appreciation or interest in the work, but out of a conviction of duty. He felt drawn towards other work.

He undertook to plow his garden with a Campbellite pony and now suffers from two broken ribs. He might have known there would be trouble when he put Baptist harness on that animal.

Brother Walters is in a meeting at Pineville. The Sunday School contributed last Sunday $45.85 for Missions. Brother W. C. Sale has wrought a splendid work as pastor. His wife has been a valuable co-worker. Some good field would do well to call him at once.

THE LAST TIME OF ASKING.

There is a certain solemnity about all last times—the last hours of the year, the bride's last day at her old home, the last moment of life. And so with last opportunities. Who has not felt a pang at the thought of kindnesses we might have shown, and hearts we might have cheered, but the opportunity has passed away! Do we ever think seriously of the close of our Convention year, and the call for our best service that it may end well? For what then are we asking, and why is it the last time for some of the readers of this Mission Monthly? We plead for money to be sent our Foreign Mission Board, and our Home Mission Board. They need it to pay salaries of faithful missionaries, who have gone to the outposts in our stead, they must have thousands of dollars to meet the obligations incurred by the instruction of the last Convention, to which we sent representatives, who there spoke for us. Southern Baptist men and women are the only people to whom these Boards can look for this money.

But how is this the last opportunity? Not because we must not keep on giving for God's Kingdom as long as we live, but because this month is the last of this fiscal year! The thirtieth day of April is the last day upon which our Boards can receive money for the year's obligations. This April number of the Monthly is our last occasion for reaching some of the Lord's people in Kentucky.

We ask then all our women and young people to give quickly, cheerfully and generously towards sending the Gospel into all the world. Have you sent in all that your society was asked for? Then try to give a little more, to make up for those who do not reach their apportionment. Has your treasury so few dollars you feel ashamed to send it? Remember that many a mickle makes a muckle; a steady stream of small sums of money will make up a mighty river of gold to gladden the hearts of your officers. Look out for some members of your church or community who have not yet become interested, and see if a few well-chosen words will not awaken their love for Christ and humanity, and bring forth gifts worthy of the cause. God has blessed us with many souls won to him, let us show our gratitude by our giving.

We women must especially remember the small contribution each society is asked to give for the support of our Training School, dependent upon us alone for its current expenses. The young women trained there are joyfully giving their lives to carrying abroad the good news of the Kingdom. We rejoice and give thanks for the splendid work they are doing, and should gladly bear our part in providing for them.

Send in all contributions by the 25th of April, if possible, and not later than the 29th.

We who are your servants for Jesus' sake, do solemnly ask each reader not to neglect this last call. E. S. Broadus,

For the Central Committee.

On the eighteenth, the annual all-day session of the Secretaries' and Field Workers' Council of the W. M. U. will be called to order at 9:30 a. m., in the First Baptist church, corner Fannin street and Walker avenue.

THE BIG SISTER.

Have you ever had a big sister? Do you remember how much she did for you when you were very young? Of course, you can't remember how she encouraged your first baby steps and helped you to become more fearless in walking alone, yet I am sure she did this and watched with great pride your growing efficiency. Wasn't she the one, when the busy mother was engaged, who wrapped the cut finger and dried the tears? Of course, she couldn't take mother's or father's place, yet she was a great help.

One need of the hour is "Big Sisters." We want every society which is a year old and over to become a big sister to a newly organized society or to the women of a church having no society.

1st.—Select the church nearest you which has no society, or a very young one.

2nd.—Write our Associational Superintendent of your choice so as to ascertain whether another society is fostering the same.

3rd.—If the church has no society write the pastor to ask if he wishes one in the church. If he does, ask the names of some women who might be interested in the work.

4th.—If there is free phone service, talk to them about the work, and when they are willing, ask if a date cannot be made for a committee from your society to meet the women of their church and help them organize.

5th.—If the society has already been organized or if you succeed in organizing one, either write or talk to the women at least once a month, telling them just what your society is doing and how you are doing it, how you make your programs from Royal Service, how you get the women to attend, etc. Ask them to tell your society just what they are doing, perhaps they can give you new ideas and really be a help to you.

6th.—Never allow them to become discouraged if they have a number of meetings with just two or three members present, tell them that often happens in some real good societies, that faithfulness on the part of even a few will accomplish a great deal.

7th.—Have one iron-clad rule, if you cannot be a help you will not be a hindrance, that is if you cannot encourage and say only good things you will not be a knocker or a stumbling block.

"Help somebody to-day."

This plan is being adopted by many of our best Associations and we expect it to produce good results.

Mrs. Kate C. Hinkle.

Only four weeks now before the closing of our books for this Convention year (when you read this it will be three weeks) we need for Foreign Missions, $4,994.23. For Home Missions, $4,846.63 and for our Training School Expense Fund, $187.06.—J. C. B.
